Annual Report

2003

“My life has

because someone I know is infected”

- UAF Volunteer

“Thanks so much for about HIV”

- UAF Test Site Client

The Resource Center at the Utah AIDS Foundation is a service provided in conjunction with Eccles Health Sciences Library at the University of Utah and the National Library of Medicine. This service is provided in order to make digital and print media, regarding HIV and other health issues, easily available to anyone who needs information. Please browse the available resources at :

UAF Services

The Utah AIDS Foundation was started in 1985 by a group of volunteers. Eventually it expanded to serve people across the state, and today a full staff of employees and support volunteers provide services to a broad range of clients. People living with or affected by HIV can count on the partnership and expertise of the Utah AIDS Foundation in the quest to mend and promote health.

CASE MANAGEMENT

Major objectives for case management include: assisting and advocating for clients in accessing housing, nutrition, transportation, legal assistance, medical care, financial aid, and other social services.

Seanna Williams: seanna@utahaids.org

FOOD BANK

UAF provides an on-site food pantry that clients and their families can access once a week.

Wednesday: 12:00pm to 6:00pm

Friday: 10:00am to 2:00pm

Duane Abplanalp: duane@utahaids.org

MEAL DELIVERY

Volunteers deliver hot meals donated by Intermountain Health Care seven days a week to clients who are unable to prepare meals themselves or have special nutritional needs.

Duane Abplanalp: duane@utahaids.org

HIV TEST SITE

HIV antibody testing is available every Monday evening at UAF from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. Tests are $15 and no appointment is needed. The fee can be reduced or waived if necessary.

Tyler Fisher: tyler@utahaids.org

SUPPORT GROUPS

A variety of groups offer support for people living with HIV, as well as for loved ones.

Seanna Williams: seanna@utahaids.org

SPEAKER'S BUREAU

Presentations are available regarding general HIV/AIDS information, personal impact stories by people living with HIV/AIDS, and other related topics free of charge.

Tyler Fisher: tyler@utahaids.org

SEASONS GIVINGS

This program provides clients with Meal Baskets and a Wish List during the Holiday Season (cards are hung on our Christmas tree with client's needs and sponsors adopt a family for the holidays).

Duane Abplanalp: duane@utahaids.org

OUTREACH

Specific outreach programs address the prevention needs of at-risk youth, women, the Hispanic community and MSM (men who have sex with men).

Thomas Hughes: thomas@utahaids.org

INFORMATION LINE

The UAF hotline is available Monday through Friday from 9:00am to 6:00pm at 1-800-FON-AIDS to answer a variety of questions and provide referrals regarding general HIV/AIDS, services, HIV testing, and gay/lesbian support information.
